

EDWARD RIDLEY & SONS,

Grand, Allen, and Orchard Sts., N. Y.

Looking back, one willingly admits the truth of the description which portrays Time as a winged messenger; at all events, its swiftness has brought the Holidays again close to hand, and very soon the joyous shouts of "Merry Christmas" will be heard with as much fervency as they were centuries ago. It being a custom that even as does not antiquate. In anticipation of the festivities to be enjoyed, we have commenced our preparations for the display of Holiday Goods, and to secure the necessary room requires the stock in many departments to be reduced, to accomplish which the following inducements for Monday and subsequent days are announced. Our necessity being the public's opportunity, all should avail themselves of it to purchase goods at the prevailing low prices.
